

Whales and Elephants

Animals are amazing! Read each paragraph.
Answer the questions.

The ocean is full of animals. The smallest are called zooplankton. Some ocean animals are huge! The largest is the blue whale. It can grow to be 100 feet long!

Land animals come in many sizes. One of the smallest is the fairyfly. Some are as thin as a thread. The largest land animal is the African elephant. It can weigh up to 14,000 pounds. That's as much as 28 pianos!

- 1 What are both paragraphs about?
- animals land animals ocean animals
- 2 How are the paragraphs different? Write your answer on the line.

The first paragraph is about _____ animals.

The second one talks about _____ animals.